

Last year, when zoos were forced to close, Deestridders adopted seven animals across the Welsh Mountain and Chester zoos. Delighted to say that we have collected a total of £506 between us and have managed to renew all seven adoptions, donating the surplus between the two locations.

