

The Green Army were out in force (this isn't even all of them) at the first Border League race of the 2022/23 season in New Brighton. Organised by Wirral AC it was a flat route of just over five miles in lovely warm conditions.