

Deestriders joins with the wider running community to express our sadness at the passing yesterday of popular race photographer Steve Jeffery. Our members have fond memories of him and he's been a welcome presence at our Off Road series, often with his beloved dog Bonnie 'Woof woof'.

Rest in peace Steve and thanks for your amazing service to our sport. Condolences to his family, friends and all who will miss him and his amazing photos. 